Carlisle To Oppose GHS FEW CHANGES Here Friday In SP Tilt; Big Scrap At Littlestown

Gettysburg High resumes its quest for the first-half champion-ship of the South Penn League Friday evening when it meets Carlisle, defending champion, on the local floor, the jayvee game OFF UNBEATEN starting at 6:45.

In their lone league game the Warriors whipped Hanover 57-49. Carlisle brings a 1-1 league record into the game, having defeated Biglerville 47-34 while losing at Hanover 58-37.

Carlisle is in a rebuilding process, graduation having taken a heavy toll on last year's championship outfit. Jim Bowers, who is replacing Gene Evans for a year as coach of the Herd, has three lads from last year's varsity squad, Joe Lins 5-5 Barry Rowe 5-7, and Dave Keller 6-1.

Foremost among other squad members are two sophomores, Barry Debolt 6-0 and Dave Lebo also 6-0. Rounding out the firststring squad are Sam Padjen, 5-8; Larry Black, 5-8; John Carnes 5-10, Ed Otto, 6-0, and Gary Heish man, 5-7- up from last year's junior varsity.

1957 Ford Fairlane 500 2-dr., NOT REQUIRED TO SERVE NEGRO

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) - A privately operated restaurant within a municipal authority's building is not required to serve negroes, the Delaware Court ruled.

Its decision Monday reversed the Delaware Court of Chancery.

The lower court held that the Eagle Restaurant within the Wilmington Parking Authority's building should have served City Councilman William H. Burton, a Negro.

The Supreme Court said, in a decision written by Associate Justice Daniel F. Wolcott, the restaurant was not intended as a service to the public using the threedeck garage.

It added the parking authority could not be accused of discrimination since Burton parked his car in the facility before being refused entrance to the restaur-

The high court said the rent paid by the restaurant helped make it possible to operate the parking facility but added:

"This circumstance, we think, is not sufficient to make the discriminatory action of the Eagle the act of the state of Delaware. It follows, therefore, that the Eagle, in the conduct of business, is acting in a purely private capacity and the operation of its restaurant does not fall within the score of the prohibitions of the 14th Amendment of the U.S. Con-

SEE RECORD DEMAND FOR STEEL IN '60

mand for steel will boost produc tion in the first half of this year to a record 70 million ingot tonthe magazine Iron Age said Wednesday.

The previous record was 64,300 000 tons set in the first half of 1959 when mills were rushing t fill pipelines before union contrac expirations.

The metalworking trade publi cation said that even a collapsi in the market later in the year would not stop the industry fron exceeding the record 117 million tons produced in 1955.

Seek To Build Stocks

"With uncertainty surrounding prices." Iron Age said, "stee users will not relax their efforts to build stocks as a hedge against higher costs. This will hold true even after the market eases or after inventory levels appear ade-

"Pressure for steel will last until the first price increase. Because the first actual pay increase will not go into effect until Dec. 1, there is a lot of talk about no price increase until then,

"This isn't necessarily so. Steel companies face immediate cost increases due to immediate boosts in fringe benefits."

Guesses On Price

The magazine expressed the opinion that steel price increases will not necessarily be applied; accross the board. It said there is a possibility that some companies will raise prices several months ahead of others and noted that a dual price system has existed in the past when the market was tight

Iron Age predicted that the first price increases will be in sheet and strip, which are used extensively in automobiles and appli-

Chairman Hennings and other members reserved the right to offer strengthening amendments in the Senate. These are expected to touch off some fireworks.

One key issue is whether to make the legislation apply to primary elections. In its present form it applies only to candidates for federal offices running in general and special elections.

Farm Hand Gets 10 To 20 Years

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) -John Breen, 64-year-old farm hand, has been sentenced to 10-to-20 years in prison after abruptly changing his plea to guilty in the slaying of a woman. With the change of plea. Tuesday, Judge James F. Henninger of Lehigh County Court ruled the murder second degree in the week-old trial. Breen was accused of killing Lille Leather, 57, of Macungie

R 1. last September 6. The prosecution charged he threw her into an abandoned quarry where her body was found.

The state said Breen killed the woman to avenge himself against her common law husband. The two worked on the same farm and had quarreled.

Five Soldiers Saved By Ham Operator

TOBYHANNA, Pa. (AP) - A Scranton, Pal, radio operator related how he helped rescue five U. S. soldiers lost in Manitoba. 1,500 miles away, while sitting before his short wave radio Stanley Wojewdoski said he was operating the U.S. Army Signa' Corps short wave radio station here Tuesday when he heard the soldiers trying in vain to call Fort Churchill, on the Hudson Bay Wojewdoski said he cut in and called Fort Churchill. He then relayed instructions to the soldiers to build a signal fire.

Two hours later Fort Churchill reported the soldiers had been rescued by helicopter. Wojewdoski said

Wayne Hawks Is "Third" SAYS FOREIGN Man In Ike's Secretariat

ticle reprinted from a recent edition of Editor and Publisher about Wayne Hawks, called the "third man in President Eisenhower's press secretariat," will be of interest to many Gettysburgians who have become friends of Hawks since his frequents to Gettysburg with the President.

The article by Pat Munroe, of Washington, follows:

The decision was a tough one for the young Army lieutenant. It was in the middle of World War II and he was under orders not Roosevelt except in "grave emergencies." Yet this wire signed 'General Dwight D. Eisenhower' appeared quite urgent.

So Lt. Wayne Hawks carried anyhow-a request from General treating Germans tried to hole up there in assumed safety. Permis-
